ACTS OF ASSEMBLY.

We continue the publication of the more important Acts passed by the present Legislature:

AN ACT TO EMPOWER THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TO DRAW JURORS FOR THE SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. The Commissioners for the several counties, at their regular meeting on the first Monday of September in each year, shall cause their Clerks to lay before them the tax returns of the preceding year for their county, from which they shall proceed to select the names of such persons only as have paid tax for the preceding year and are of good moral character and of sufficient intelligence.

SEC. 2. A list of the names thus selected shall be made out by the Clerk of the Board of Commissioners and shall constitute the Jury list; Provided, That no practicing physician, regular minister of the gospel, keepers of public grist mills, or regularly licensed pilots, shall be required to serve as Jurors.

SEC. 3. If the list so made out does not contain the names of all the inhabitants who are qualified as provided in section one to serve as jurors, the Commissioners shall insert the names of such inhabitants in the Jury list.

SEC. 4. At each regular meeting on the first Monday in September, in each year, the Commissioners shall carefully examine the jury lists as already made out, compare the same with the tax returns and diligently enquire whether any persons qualified to be jurors, as provided in section one, are omitted, and whether any person [s] not qualified to be jurors as therein provided have been inserted, and if any have been inserted not possessing the requisite qualifications, they shall strike such names from the Jury list, and in order to obtain full information on the subject the Commissioners may examine on oath any person they think proper.

SEC. 5. The Commissioners shall cause the names on their jury list to be written on small scrolls of paper of equal size and put into a box procured for that purpose, which must have two divisions marked No. 1 and 2, and two locks, the key of one to be kept by the Sheriff of the county, the other by the Chairman of the Commissioners, and the box by the Clerk of the Board.

SEC. 6. At least twenty days before the regular fall and spring term of the Superior Courts in each year, the Commissioners shall cause to be drawn from the Jury Box out of the partition marked No. 1, by a child not more than ten years of age, thirty-six scrolls and the persons whose names are inscribed on said scrolls shall serve as jurors at the fall and spring terms of the Superior Court to be held for the county respectively ensuing such drawing, and the scrolls so drawn to make the jury shall be put into the partition marked No. 2.

SEC. 7. If any of the jurors drawn have a suit pending and at issue in the Superior Court the scrolls with their names must be returned into partition No. 1 of the Jury Box.

SEC. 8. If any of the persons drawn to serve as jurors be dead or removed out of the county, the scrolls with the names of such persons must be destroyed, and in such cases other persons shall be drawn in their stead.

SEC. 9. The drawing out of partition marked No. 1 and putting the scrolls drawn into partition No. 2 shall continue until all the scrolls in partition No. 1 are drawn out, when all the scrolls shall be returned into partition No. 1 and drawn out again as herein directed.

SEC. 10. Whenever a special term of the Superior Court is ordered for the county, the Commissioners, fifteen days before the holding of such special term, shall draw eighteen jurors to attend said Court as herein provided for drawing jurors for the regular terms thereof.

SEC 11. If the Commissioners for any cause fail to draw a jury for any term of the Superior Court, regular or special, the Sheriff of the county and the Clerk of the Commissioners, in the presence of, and assisted by, two Justices of the Peace of the county, shall draw such jury in the manner above prescribed.

SEC. 12. The Clerk of the Board of Commissioners shall deliver to the Sheriff a list of the jurors drawn, within five days after such drawing, with an order to summon the same as directed by law.

SEC. 13. This Act shall be in force only until the division of counties into townships shall be completed, when the permanent provision of the Code shall take effect.

SEC. 14. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed, and this Act is in force from the date of its passage.

Ratified the 4th day of August, A. D. 1868.

ARMS FOR THE SOUTH—A PRETEXT FOR A NEW SESSION OF CONGRESS.

The Governors of the Southern States, it appears, are sorely disappointed because General Schofield has decided that there is no law to justify the issue of arms to the Southern militia. There is, we suppose, no doubt in the mind of any one as to what the Southern Governors want the arms for. It is to control the election against the will of the people by the operation of an armed militia. The Southern white people do not require any coercion. They are remarkably peaceable and well behaved. In fact, they have on several recent occasions refused to be brought into collision with the blacks, although the Radical mischief-makers tried that game at Raleigh and elsewhere. Even the violence of some of the public harangues has been toned down to moderation of late, and there is an evident disposition on the part of the South to conduct the approaching election quietly, but firmly, against the Radicals. The people of the South have nothing to gain by disturbing the peace, and they are beginning to understand it at last. To commit acts of violence would be to play into the hands of their enemies and persecutors, and this is the very thing which the carpet-bag Governors are most anxious to accomplish.

There may be another reason why the Governors are so urgent about arming the militia, and that is to bring about an early meeting of Congress in September. It seems that they have made a united appeal to Congress for this purpose, in order to supply such legislation as Secretary Schofield says does not now exist with regard to arming the militia. This may be a mere pretext to get Congress together, because there is no necessity for an early session, as Old Thad Stevens admitted in his last moments. This movement of the Radical Governors at the South, therefore, may be regarded as a mere party dodge for electioneering purposes. The Radicals, who speculated confidently upon the support of the Southern negroes, may perhaps be pardoned for their present bitter disappointment at finding things going the other way; but that is no reason why they should be encouraged in provoking violence and bloodshed for party ends. We know enough of Radical policy at the South to distrust these men when they raise the cry of "wolf." It is pretty evident now that the majority of the Southern people, white and black, mean to go against Radicalism, and the free expression of the people's will should not be interfered with by military force under any pretence whatever.—N. Y. Herald.

MAGNANIMITY.

The people of North Carolina have always borne the reputation of being law abiding and scrupulous in the discharge of their public and private duties.

And those of our readers who served with the troops of our sister State will remember that, as a rule, they were as remarkable for their good behavior on the march, or in the bivouac, as they were in the line of battle.

There is a solidity about the North Carolina character, and a gravity in the North Carolina mind, which combine to make up an individuality which commands respect wherever it is known.

This character, once sedate and vigorous, has been taxed of late in a cruel manner.—The Legislature of the State has been shaped by alien adventurers and native thimble-riggers. Every scheme which ingenuity can devise is resorted to in order to wring the hard earned money of the people from their hands, hard with toil; and the plundering system is carried on with open declarations that the carpet baggers and scalawags are the "masters" of the native population.

"These people must know that we are their masters" said "General" Abbott, who is now a Senator, God save the mark! from the State once represented by Nathaniel Macon.

Everything which lust of office, appetite for plunder, and a cowardly temper could suggest, has been done by Holden and his minions; but, under all the base persecution, the people of North Carolina have exercised a rare and commendable control over their feeling of natural indignation. A conspicuous illustration of self command was afforded the other day when the Democratic Convention assembled in Raleigh. On that occasion a number of ignorant negroes endeavored to create a riot, and provoke a collision with the white men of the State.

The insanity of the attempt can be understood when we mention the fact that there were over three thousand delegates present, to say nothing of the population of Raleigh, and contributions from Virginia.

This force could have destroyed the rioters without an effort, and, yet, with a magnanimity and forbearance, worthy of all praise, they pitied the deluded negroes and forgave them their insolent and aggressive acts. In this course they gave a noble illustration of the character we have attributed to white men of the Old North State.—Norfolk Virginian.

A CARD.
SEVERAL month ago, I purchased the entire stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARRAR & CO., and continued the business, changing the name afterwards to Branson & Jones, never using myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent for the N. C. Business Directory. But as some persons seem, erroneously, to consider it a partnership, or to blend the interest of the former firm with my own I shall henceforth conduct the business under my own name alone, unless some partner should be taken hereafter. Mr. Branson will continue to be General Agent for the N. C. Directory, which will necessarily engage most of his time and attention.

I shall be pleased to furnish our friends and the public with BOOKS, STATIONERY, SHEET MUSIC and other articles in our line, at lowest cash prices.

MASS MEETING IN GREENSBORO'.

We learn, that the Democratic and Conservative Mass Meeting, at Greensboro, on Tuesday, was a magnificent success. It is estimated that from three to five thousand persons were in attendance,—including a large number of ladies. The meeting was kept up quite late at night, and eloquent and able speeches were made by Col. R. R. Cowan, of Wilmington, P. F. Duffy, Esq., Hon. Jas. T. Morehead, Col. Jas. T. Morehead, Col. Jno. A. Gilmer, and, perhaps, others. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and old Guilford is represented to be thoroughly aroused.

A very large procession was formed, which was greeted, at every stage of its march, by loud acclamations, the waving of handkerchiefs by fair hands, &c. Music lent enlivening influence, and public and other buildings displayed the National flag. We hope to receive a full account of this great rally of the people.

MENDACITY AND FIVE POINTISM.

A friend has clipped the following from a leader in the rebel-Radical organ of this City. Its falsehood, venality and demagogury are too patent to deceive any one.

"The time for the poor white has arrived. He is no longer a serf and beneath the social standing of the negro. He, too, is emancipated. He is about to change places with the men who passed him by on the other side. They neglect him, free schools and now in every township in the South the mattle of children at their books can be heard. They denied him labor and sought the wilds of Africa rather than employ him, and now their plantations are passing into his hands. His wife and children are to enter their halls, and where the slave lords' wife sent to strip pride will dwell in honored independence they who would have been the subjects in the great kingdom whose corner stone was Slavery."

Such is the gauge from the organ of a party, which seeks to degrade the poor, honest white man below the level of the negro, a pitch of impudence, seldom reached in this age. White men, every where, will spurn the falsehoods and the demagoguery of that party. It is a sufficient answer to everything that may be said of this sort, for every white man to say, "I am a white man. No man or party ever dared to attempt to degrade me—to put me on the level of the negro, BUT THE RADICAL PARTY."

NEW CAUCUS MOVEMENTS.

The Radicals are determined, as far as possible, to close the mouths of the people in the choice of their Representatives. For some cause we know not what, the Radical members of the Legislature have nominated A. H. Jones, of the Mountain District, for re-election to Congress,—thus forestalling any other member of the party from running and thus dictating to the people of the District.

We believe that gentlemen should announce themselves as candidates, on their own hook, or properly called District Conventions, should make the nominations.—The tyranny of a party caucus we despise and oppose.

GOOD TIDINGS.

A gentleman of intelligence and reliability, residing in this State, has just returned from a circuit of tour through the Northern and Northwestern States. He says the demonstrations in those States are unmistakable, of the utter rout and defeat of the Radicals in the next elections. The best informed give it as their opinion, that the reaction in favor of the restoration of the Constitution will take place on the basis of the Democratic platform, is accumulating and gathering strength daily, and will sweep the North as the political tornado did in 1840.

THE LEGISLATURE.—We have not space to refer specifically to the various outrages committed by the logue Legislature, on yesterday. The proceedings speak for themselves. It would appear, as the session approaches its close, that the vile conspirators against the peace of the State are growing more rapid and vindictive. Let them go it to the length of their 'tether.'

THE WINDMILL SQUIRES.

"Let a man," quoth Sir Edward Coke, "consider the office of Justice of the Peace, and the world hath not wherewith to compare with it in dignity." This is the theory. But the practice is, as Hudibras hath it, that a Justice of the Peace is often "an owl," and commits himself in signing the commitment of others. What would Sir Edward and Butler have said, if the aforesaid Justice were to sign the commitment with a ✕; as must be done, if at all, in our enlightened age, and in this our regenerated old State! And how would these worthies have opened their eyes, at the edifying spectacle of a heavy blubber-lipped African, just emerged from his state of slavery, sitting in judgment on his trembling old master on an allegation of riotous behavior, or peradventure of some dark treasonable conspiracy!

It is well known that many of the new created scallawag Justices cannot write their names—and that most of the negro magistrates cannot tell even where to make their mark on the process which the law requires them to write. See Rev. Code, Chap. 62.—By Sec. 4, full power is given to the Justices "to maintain, keep, and preserve the peace, solemnize the rites of matrimony, and issue all necessary process, in aid of their jurisdiction." The law requires a license. How can one of these Solons know whether the license shown him may not be a forgery, or a writ in debt, or a subpœna, or a peace warrant? How can he "issue all necessary process"—when he can neither write it, nor read it, when written? Or must he be accompanied by a sworn interpreter?

Sec. 9. How can this unlettered ignoramus, whether white or black, issue the "written order" commanding certain proceedings to be returned to Court?

Sec. 18. How can the sapient Justice "direct the Sheriff, Constable or other officer, by an order in writing, on the process, to summon witnesses," etc., when he does not know B from a bull's foot?

Sec. 25. How can he "issue subpœnas directed to the Sheriff or other officer in any County, for witnesses," &c., when he can neither write a subpœna nor read one when written; nor anything else? Must he have a deputy who can read and write?

Sec. 30. How can "the officer or other person, having the execution, due notice being given in writing from the Justice, deliver up the same," etc., when it is a physical impossibility that he could have received such due notice in writing?

Sec 31. How can this precious Squire know that he is taking from "evil doers, rioters and disturbers of the public peace security for their good behavior," when that very security is to him all heathen Greek? How can he be sure that it is not a warrant to send himself to the Lunatic Asylum or our new Penitentiary? How can he certify to any of the numerous bonds required to be taken by Magistrates, when he cannot read one of them? And how does the wise and patriotic Fetich Chief feel, when he reads over the list of his new appointees to this very important office? It has been suggested that he should set up a school in the Executive Mansion, and that, with the young Prince and the Attorney General as his assistants, he should do the best he can to rectify his outrageous mistake, by inaugurating and carrying out personally, and with the aids aforesaid, a thorough course of instruction to his Windmill Judges in the three R's at least, to wit: Reading, Ritin and Rithmetic, without distinction of color? The State, poor as she is, could well afford to pay the expense, to save her "minor Judiciary" from utter contempt, and suitors from ruinous loss.—The worthy Superintendent of Public Instruction will cordially lend his official sanction and aid, and, sometimes, the light of his countenance, besides. In the meantime, the Superintendent of Public Works, having nothing else to do, at present, (and not knowing when, or in what, he will ever have anything else to do,) will lend all the ben his of the old dilapidated Church in the Baptist Grove for the pupils to sit on; inasmuch as he will soon begin his official labors, (whatever they may be,) by raseeing the buildings on that old barbecue square, and putting the same in clover, for the delectation of his own bright eyes, and the special edification of the hungry State mules. Moreover, it has been suggested, and not without reason, that our sapient and most economical Legislature had an eye to this very thing, when it cut down the Head Centre's furniture appropriation from ten to five thousand dollars. The old furniture, whittled down as it has been by the jack knives of the late occupants of the White House, ought not to be wasted. It will do for the Executive and Judicial school room, until the pupils (rather rusty and unsophisticated now, but soon to become illustrious, and worthy to sit upon velvet cushions) shall learn to spell baker, and may be until the brightest among them shall be able to affix their own signatures to official acts without the sign of the cross, and read and understand the short commandments,—particularly, the immortal Eighth!

HERE is the latest specimen of the Yankee morality which has been injected into the Raleigh Standard:

The Sentinel, on Tuesday, said

"The Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina are bound by no positions, or principles, or programmes of individuals, but by the platform of principles set forth in the official declarations of the National Democratic Convention."

The Standard, of Wednesday, quotes the Sentinel as having declared that "the Democrats and Conservatives are bound by no positions or principles"—cutting the paragraph directly in twain, for the purpose of perverting our meaning. This is, simply, infamous, but it is in entire keeping with Radicalism.

In their despair, Radicals threaten civil war, in order to make a fair and free election by the people of North Carolina impossible.

VOTE for Grant and Colfax and you vote for war and revolution.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 19, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Sweet, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, made a report in favor of J. W. Stevens, contestant of the seat of the Hon. Bedford Brown, of the 24th Senatorial District.

[The report recites that certain persons were not allowed to vote, who had been convicted of larceny in 1866, or who had submitted to a verdict of guilty. The Committee don't know whether larceny is a felony, or whether submission is equivalent to conviction. The report also recites the names of twelve voters, who, it alleges, were illegally registered by Gen. Canby's Registrars. If these twelve be taken from Mr. Brown, and the convicted felons had voted for Stevens, the latter is elected, say the Committee, by 3 votes, &c!]

All of the Committee are Radicals.

Mr. Welker moved, that, as the Committee had decided in favor of Mr. Stevens, he be permitted to qualify and take his seat.

Here considerable discussion arose,—Messrs. Lindsay, Robbins, Osborne and Winstead participating, in opposition to the report, and protesting that the investigation had been wholly ex parte; Mr. Brown, whose seat had been contested, having taken no part in it.

Mr. Winstead moved, as a substitute for Mr. Welker's motion, that, as the investigation had been conducted ex parte, the question be submitted to the people of Caswell, at an election to be hereafter designated.

Mr. Winstead's substitute was adopted by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Barrow, Barnes, Brogden, Burns, Beeman, Hyman, (negro,) Legg, Lindsay, Lassiter, Love, Martindale, Moore, of Yancey, Melchor, Osborne, Purtle, Rich, Richardson, Robbins, Shoffner, White, Wynne, Winstead and Wilson—23.

NAYS.—Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Hayes, Harrington, Long Moore, of Carteret, Sweet and Welker.—11.

A. H. Galloway, (negro,) presented a bill to prevent obstructions in Rockfish Creek.

Mr. Robbins, a bill punishing the crimes of rape, burglary, arson, &c.

J. A. Hyman, (negro,) a resolution proposing to raise the pay of the Assistant Doorkeep, or and Pages, to that of members. The resolution was adopted.

CALENDAR.

The Bill, from the Committee on Claims, authorizing the payment of certain claims against the Insane Asylum, passed its third reading.

The Bill to incorporate the Deep River Mining and Manufacturing Company, passed.

The Bill to amend chap. 42, sec. 8 Revised Code, entitled "Entries and Grants," passed.

The Bill for the relief of certain persons, who may have suffered by the destruction of papers by fire in the County of Anson; Bill concerning refunding Bonds; Bill to amend charter of Mecklenburg Female College; Bill in relation to suits pending in the late Supreme Court of this State; Bill to facilitate the settlement of the estates of deceased persons,—severally passed their second readings.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill to provide for the payment of the lawful debt of the State, being the order, was taken up.

Mr. Brogden expatiated at large, on point no point. Mr. and Robbins opposed the bill, for the reason that it would fail to accomplish its purposes. He was for maintaining the credit of the State, but could see no good effected by the bill, without amendment.

Mr. Robbins attempted to move an amendment, so as to fix the rate of interest at 6 per cent. for monies borrowed by the State, but was interrupted by Mr. Barrow, who moved the previous question, and the bill passed.

A message was received from the House covering a series of partizan resolutions denouncing President Johnson, Gov. Worth, the Democracy, &c., calling upon the Governor to resist all attempts to displace the carpet-bag governments, &c.

Mr. Robbins denounced the resolution as containing a tissue of lies from beginning to end.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved the previous question, and the resolution passed by a strict party vote, except that Mr. Wilson, of Forsyth, who has shown himself throughout to be an independent man, voted in the negative with the Conservatives.

On motion, the Senate adjourned till 8 o'clock, to night.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

[BY UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.]

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 19, 1868.

The House was called to order at the usual time.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of the House.

Mr. Kelly, of Davie, asked for leave of absence. This created a lively discussion, during which Mr. Sinclair informed Foster, of Bladen, that he was a liar. After quite a lively and animated debate, Messrs. Kelly, Carson and Banner were granted leave of absence for the remainder of the session.

Leary, (negro,) arose to a question of privilege. He said he had reason to believe that objection had been raised to his appointment on a certain Committee, because he was a colored man, &c.

Under a suspension of the rules, Estes, (c. b.) called up the bill incorporating the Raspas Guano Company. The bill passed its second and third reading.

Estes (c. b.) offered a resolution consigning Andrew Johnson, the National Democratic Convention and its nominees, the State Convention, and the Conservative press and party, generally, to everlasting damnation. [The resolution is understood to have been drawn up by john pool and submitted to caucus last night. It calls upon the present nigger-carpet bag powers to crush out every thing that looks like opposition to their will. This resolution supplies everything that is lacking to finally overthrow and silence liberty—all that dare to speak and think differently from the Radical party. It is in fur sustaining the present nigger-scallawag at all hazards, no matter what the result of the next National election.] This resolution of this aforesaid carpet-bagger passed under a suspension of the rules, by a strict party vote of yeas 35, nays 21.

Mr. Argo offered a resolution that all persons obtaining licenses at the June Term of the Supreme Court of 1868 be allowed to practice law in the Courts specified in said license. The resolution was adopted under a suspension of the rules.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and the Senate bill, entitled "an act to incorporate the N. C. Swamp Land, Naval Stores and Lumber Company," was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Dixon, the bill concerning the powers and duties of State officers was postponed until December next.

On motion, the Senate amendments to the bill to more effectually punish horse and mule stealing were concurred in.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) under a suspension of the rules, called up the resolution in regard to the pay of Assistant Clerks and Pages. He moved to amend by giving them mileage, also.

Mr. Barnett moved to lay the amendment on the table, and the amendment was put to a vote and carried.

On motion of Downing, the rules were suspended and the joint resolution appropriating $500 for contingent expenses was taken up. The resolution was then adopted.

On motion of the same, the rules were suspended, and Senate bill appropriating $8000 for the support of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum was taken up and passed its several readings.

Holden, (Speaker,) moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill to punish crimes and outreges perpetrated under the sanction of pretended authority during the late war. Carried.

Holden then proceeded to urge various objections to the report of the Judiciary Committee, recommending its postponement until next session. He moved that the House do not concur in the report.

Upon that motion, the yeas and nays were called for, and the motion was sustained by a vote of yeas 57, nays 34.

Mr. Argo moved to print the bill and make it the special order for to morrow.

Mr. Pou moved to lay the whole matter on the table.

Holden then arose and gave vent to a bitter and vindictive speech. He was in favor of fixing the hideous mark upon the foreheads of certain men in the State. He knew that there were Generals, Captains, Lieutenants and privates of the "Lost Cause," in the State, that were banded together, and would stand by each other, &c. He was in favor of a thorough and strict investigation of those alleged offences, committed under pretended authority during the war, and, if proved upon the actors, to vis it upon their heads swift and sure punishment.

Mr. Pou withdrew his motion to lay on the table.

Mr. Argo said that he wanted the bill printed so that all might have an opportunity to examine it thoroughly. He was surprised that such an important bill should have been thrust upon them without any previous intimation, at the very heel of the session. Malice is calculated to produce strife and breaches of the peace in the State. The first Legislature that assembled, after the close of the war, taking the example of history, declared that acts committed under the authority of even a de facto government were not to be punished. For the soundness and wisdom of that policy, Mr. A. called the attention of the House to the course pursued by the English Government, at the Restoration. He did not see why gentlemen, having the peace and prosperity of the State at heart, should seek to raise up those by gones, that would, if brought to the surface, revive hall to gotter animosities and feuds. He deplored such legislation, because, if carried out in the letter and spirit of this bill, it would involve citizens of the State, both Republicans and Conservatives, in difficulties that are now buried, and, for the sake of the public peace, had better remain so.

Mr. Pou said the bill was utterly useless, as a legal instrument, and, moreover, he felt that he was discharging a high moral duty in moving to indefinitely postpone the bill. Therefore he renewed his previous motion.

The yeas and nays, being called for, resulted in a vote of yeas 24, nays 14. No action was taken, as not a quorum voted.

On motion a call of the House was had, and 71 members answered to their names. After a good deal of discussion, the bill was po tpone'.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the vote of yesterday, appropriating the sum of $5000 to furnish the Executive Mansion, was reconsidered.

Mr. Sinclair then moved to strike out $5,000, and insert $10,000, as per report of the Committee.

Mr Pou objected to the amendment.

After some discussion the amendment was adopted, by a vote of yeas 45, nays 39.

On motion of Estes, the rules were suspended, and bill to levy taxes upon Railroad receipts, to provide for paying the interest on the public debt, was taken up, and the bill passed its 3rd. reading, after a lively discussion, by a vote of yeas 44, nays 22.

On motion of Mr. Whitley, the rules were suspended, and the bill to amend the charter of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio R. R. was taken up.

Mr. W. said that the iron of this road had been taken up by the Confederate authorities, and transferred to the Piedmont Railroad, &c. The bill then passed its several reading.

On motion of Mr. Barnett, the bill amending the ordinance of the Convention, in reference to the North Western N. C. R. R. was taken up. He moved to amend by adding, after the word, "superstructure," the words "when $100,000 of solvent additional subscription shall be taken and five per cent of said amount shall be paid in." And, also, striking out $15,000 per mile and inserting $10,000. After some debate the amendments were adopted.

Mr. Barnett moved the previous upon the bill, as amended. Carried.

Procter moved to adjourn. Lost.

Stevens moved that when the House adjourn, it adjourn until 8 o'clock this evening. No quorum voting, the question recurred upon the passage of the bill on its third reading, as amended. The yeas and nays being called the bill was lost by a vote of yeas 28, nays 40.

Seymour moved that when the House adjourn, it adjourn to 8 o'clock this evening. No quorum voting.

On motion a call of the House was had, and 78 members answered to their names.

Seymour renewed his motion and it prevailed.

Ladin called up the bill to incorporate the Ridgeway Land and Immigration Co.

All the negroes were down on all such immigration schemes.

After some discussion, Morriss (negro) moved to postpone to December next.

Mr. Ferebee moved to lay that motion on the table. Lost.

Morriss' motion to postpone prevailed.

A message was received from the Senate, transmitting the following bills: A bill to punish conspiracies, sentinos and rebellions; A bill to provide for the support of the Insane Asylum; A bill to incorporate the Holden Hook and Ladder Co. in Newbern. The bills go upon the Calendar.

Mr Pou, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, reported, in the case of the contested election in Caswell County, that Mr. Long (Conservative) received 1,419, and Wilson Carey (negro) received 1,415.

The Committee reported that Mr. Long's majority of 4 were illegal votes, and, therefore, Carey (negro) is legally entitled to the seat, and recommend that he be allowed to qualify and take his seat.

On motion of Seymour, the House then adjourned until 8 o'clock this evening.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE.—We made a flying visit to Raleigh last week, and dined with Blair of the Yarborough. The fare and everything else connected with this Hotel is kept in such superior style, that we advise our friends who have business in the city to make this favorite resort their head quarters. Men may wrangle over the political questions of the country, but none will object to a single plank in the platform spread by Blair.—Goldsboro' News.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.
THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:
The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, proper, 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL, October 28th.
This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the nationalization of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter. Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the eminence of bearing children in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in Science, gathered at this centre, would be a source of powerful mutual development.
The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for college. The College proper has eight efficient Professors and Lecturers; the Law school four, and the Medical ten; the expenses are as low as at other colleges. Number of students the past year, 444. For Catalogues or further information, address,

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Heart Cypress Shingles, delivered at any point on the N. C. Railroad: Walker, Parrar & Co., Newbern.

Pianos Tuned and satisfaction guaranteed: Jno. A. Shapard, Raleigh.

Virginia Hog round Bacon and N. C. Family Flour: Upchurch & Dodd.

Job Printing Office (over Williams & Lambeth's Bookstore): T. M. Hughes, Raleigh. We can commend Mr. Hughes and his establishment, very cordially, to the Public.

Columbian College, Washington, D. C.: Rev. G. W. Samson, President. This is one of the first Institutions in the country, and has always been most admirably managed. The orphans of the war, on both sides, pay but one half tuition. Four of the Faculty were Confederate officers during the war. To those who know Dr. Samson, no commendation of this excellent College is necessary.

Welch's Family Flour, Imperial Green Tea, Soap, Snuff, Starch, Candles and Lard: Douglas Bell.

DEMOCRATIC BARBECUE.

A free Barbecue will be given by the Seymour and Blair Club of House's Creek District, at TUCKER'S MILL, on Saturday next.

The Public are respectfully invited.—Speeches from able gentlemen may be expected.

H. T. CLAWSON, Esq.—We have received a request from several ladies of the City, asking us to express their acknowledgments to H. T. Clawson, Esq., for the invaluable and gratuitous assistance he rendered them, in the recent decoration of Tucker Hall, with his brush, and as well as for the suggestions of his excellent taste and experience in such matters. Clawson is always whole-souled in a good cause, and deserves the thanks which the ladies desire us to tender him.

THANKS to our friends, W. L. London, Esq., of Chatham, and Dr. J. W. Gidney, of Cleveland, for Clubs of subscribers to the Sentinel.

HANDSOME ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The colored delegation from Wilmington to the Raleigh Convention publish a Card, returning their thanks to our citizens, for the "kind and hospitable treatment" received during their stay here. Especial thanks are tendered to Sheriff Ray, W. C. Parker, Esq., and David Lewis, Esq.

SWEET POTATOES.—Jonathan Smith, Esq., of this county, has laid us under obligations by the present of a lot of fine sweet potatoes, of a choice and early variety, and of remarkable size for the season. They were only bedded on the last day of April.—Who can beat this?

EXPORTING FRUIT.—Those energetic Merchants, Messrs. Upchurch & Dodd, have exported more than 600 cases of Peaches the present season. Our friend, B. F. Cheatham, Esq., is also engaged in the same profitable enterprise.

MISTAKES AND CORRECTION.—All our friends are requested to let us know, immediately, when mistakes or errors occur in the direction or failure of their papers. In the bustle of large crowds, &c., mistakes will occur, and it is no offence to us to be informed of them, when they occur. When our friends send us money, and they fail to get the paper, let us know at once! But be sure to send us checks or money orders, or send by Express, when it is possible.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE.—Prof. L. C. Garland, of Alabama, having declined the appointment of President of this College, Rev. James A. Duncan, of Petersburg, the popular and able preacher, has been elected, and he accepts. The appointment is a good one.

PLATO DURHAM, ESQ.

We are authorized to announce this gentleman as a candidate for Congress in the Seventh Congressional District. Mr. Durham, on his return home, will enter, at once, upon an active and efficient canvass of the District.

IT WAS a happy thought putting Dewesse on the Committee on Fire-works, &c., for the big black Radical pow wow next month. He will inflate the balloon on the occasion, without any extra outlay for gas.

WE OMITTED to notice the fact, on yesterday, that Judge Tourgee is to be the Chief Marshal of the Radical Mass-meeting here on the 16th. prox. What a business for a Judge! However, we expect he is better fitted to be a Marshal for such an occasion than to be a Judge.

THE CONSPIRATORS.—There was another meeting of the "Loyal Leaguers," so-called, in the Capitol, on Tuesday night—Mr. Sweet, this time, in the Chair. When our informant retired, Jno. Pool was reading a lengthy paper bearing on the necessity of re-organizing the treasonable Leagues, &c. The "trooly loil" are badly frightened at the rapid disintegration going on among the "faithful."

"JOE BROWN" is the new Chief Justice of Georgia. Joe made a speech at a late Radical meeting in Atlanta. Joe excused himself for the impropriety of a Judge's mingling in a political meeting, on the ground that he had not yet received his commission, and intimated that, after he had received it, he would not be guilty of such an indecency. Tolerably good for Joe.—But Judge Reade has received his commission, and yet he is to preside at a negro-Radical meeting next month. So much for Judge Reade.

NATHAN SCOGGIN, Esq., of Rutherford, formerly a leading Republican, is President of a Seymour and Blair Club in that county.

FIRST ON HAND.—Nelson Slough, Esq., Sheriff of the good Democratic county of Cabarrus, is first on hand to settle his taxes with the Public Treasurer.

A PALPABLE HIT.—During the debate on the bill regulating Salaries and Fees, in the Senate, on Tuesday, Mr. Lassiter moved to increase the pay of County Commissioners from $3 to $5 per diem, and Mr. Barrow, in advocating the amendment, said that the Commissioners would have to pay for board, and they ought to have a little something over to treat their friends,—and liquor was 25 cents a drink! Mr. Love said that, in his mountain section of the State, good board could be had for less than $1,50 a day, and liquor in abundance, if they wanted it, could be had at 25 cents a quart.

Jones of Wake: "I desire to ask the Senator a question. Is there any tax paid on distillation in the gentleman's county?"

Mr. Love: "The whiskey is mainly made by the Radicals, and it is notorious that they never pay taxes!"

A general laugh, as Jones collapsed.

YOUNG MEN'S SEYMOUR AND BLAIR CLUB.

The meeting was called to order on Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock,—President Busbee in the Chair.

The Secretary being absent, the President requested J. C. Birdsong to act temporarily.

The President invited all, desiring to join the Club, to come forward and enroll their names; when 19 additional responded to the call.

The resolutions offered by Mr. T. M. Hughes, at the late meeting, were read and adopted, to-wit:

"WHEREAS, The Elective Franchise is now exercised in North Carolina by all classes, without distinction of race of color; and whereas, it is manifestly expedient and conducive to the success of the Democratic party in said State, to increase its numbers by accessions from all classes of electors; therefore

Be it resolved, 1st, That this Club will use every honorable means to influence colored electors of Wake county to become members of the Great National Democratic Party, and will, by facts and arguments, show them that it is to their interest to vote with the party that will sustain a constitutional government.

2d. That, to aid in accomplishing this object, a Committee of three, to be appointed by the President of the Club, shall solicit all employers of laborers or mechanics to enter into and sign an agreement in the following words, to-wit:

"We, the undersigned, do mutually agree that, in the employment of mechanics and laborers, we will, in all cases, give preference to members of the Democratic or Conservative party, who have in their possession and present to us, evidence of such membership; and that when we have once employed them under the assurance that they are members of a Democratic or Conservative Association, if afterwards they should desert their party, and vote with the Radical party, then, in that event, we pledge ourselves that we will give such as so desert, and prove false to their assurance, no employment whatever, under any circumstances, except in cases of most urgent necessity.

We furthermore agree that this shall be binding from and after the expiration of the several terms of employment of mechanics and laborers now entered into by us."

Mr. Hughes moved to appoint a Committee of three, in conformity with the 2nd resolution. Adopted.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Thos. M. Hughes, Robt. Dobbin and W. C. Parker.

Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That we take this early occasion to express our hearty gratification at the evidences of popular enthusiasm and awaking in our good old State, as so signally evidenced in the recent great Democratic and Conservative demonstration in this city.

Resolved, That while we were glad to see our fellow citizens from all parts of the State, we desire particularly to thank our brethren of Wilmington and Fayetteville for their contributions to the success of our celebration; and to express the hope that we may meet often in patriotic and equally enthusiastic council during the coming campaign.

Capt. J. C. Gorman offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Club do most heartily endorse the platform adopted by the State Convention held in this city, during last week; that we concur in the selections made for Electors for the State at large, and in the selection of the Executive Committee, and pledge ourselves anew to zealously co-operate with them in every movement they may make to advance the election of Seymour and Blair for President and Vice President of the United States.

On motion, by Mr. Marcom, the President and Secretary were requested to prepare and have printed blank certificates of membership, to be furnished to those who desire them.

The Chair announced the following standing Committees for the different Wards:

Western Ward.—James C. Marcom, H. Bragg, A. K. Smedes, G. L. Horton, G. B. Gayle, Chas. W. Bevers, T. V. Moss, Wm. E. Pell, Jr., C. S. Allen, J. Q. DeCarteret, M. L. King and G. o. B. Moore.

Eastern Ward.—F. C. Christophers, F. A. Hatch, Peter Francis, N. S. Harp, Jno. C. Gorman, J. A. Moore, W. C. Parker, Jno. T. Womble, Len H. Adams, Wm. H. Bagley, Wm. H. Bledsoe and C. R. Moss.

Middle Ward.—A. N. McKimmon, Douglas Bell, T. H. Peebles, R. C. Badger, S. P. Gill and Jos. P. Gully.

Mr. Hughes, being loudly called for, addressed the meeting at some length.

Reports of Committees were called for, and they not being ready to report, the Chair extended the time until the next meeting.

Capt. J. C. Gorman offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Club hereby invites all colored men, who desire a return of prosperity and plenty to our impoverished land, to unite with us in our efforts to preserve Constitutional Liberty, and to place their names on the rolls of the Club.

A Committee to select speakers for the next meeting was appointed, when the meeting adjourned.

MONEY ORDERS.

My attention having been recently called to several losses of small sums of money by mail, I would take this method of again calling the attention of the Public to the fact, that it is desirable for all parties, remitting money by mail, to buy money orders, where they can be obtained, and, where they cannot, all letters containing money should be registered.

A JOBE,
Special Agent.

THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

At a full consultation of the delegates from this District, present at the late Convention, it was determined to call a Convention and Mass Meeting at Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 9th day of September next, to select a candidate for Elector, and also for Congress. The Cumberland delegation promise a warm reception to all their friends, and extend a cordial invitation to them.

For the Sentinel.

"AT HOME AGAIN."

Such was the exultant exclamation of Judge Reade, a month or two ago, in the presence of the Legislature of North Carolina, now assembled in Raleigh, under and by authority of the Fortieth Congress of the United States. In the utterance of these three words, Judge Reade meant simply to say that North Carolina had been restored to her ancient place in the American Union. Is it true, as asserted by Judge Reade, that the people of North Carolina are "at home again?" In one sense, the people of this dear old State may be said to have returned home, but it is far from being the home that it was in former years. There stands the old homestead with many of its ancient surroundings, but it is occupied by strangers, who are the deadly foes of its former tenants. Standing upon some lofty summit, in the midst of our old heritage, we still behold the towering mountains in the west, — we see around us the brown-clad vale and gushing fountains, and far off in the east the broad expanse of Ocean lifting its foam-crested billows to the embrace of the skies; but when we look above us we discover that the great Sun of Liberty has been blotted from the heavens. The mountain has no greenness—the lovely flower and enameled vale wear the hue of death, and the "golden sands on their island gems" send forth no rays of reflected light. But let us enter the old family mansion, and, passing through some of its apartments, see if we discover any of the forms and faces that were so familiar to us in years gone by. We go to the Executive Chamber and look in vain for the Manlys, the Moreheads, the Grahams, the Reids, the Braggs, the Ellicks, the Vances, of other years. We enquire for them, but they are not there. But this apartment is not tenantless. There sits a man who has been raised to this lofty eminence by the strong arm of Military power, despite the most earnest protestation on the part of those who have hitherto regulated and controlled the destinies of this great household. Every lineament of his face bespeaks deep-seated malignity and revenge, and upon his brow is written in letters of fire "Hatred to the Anglo Saxon race." Tyrant that he is, the thirst of sway is the leading motive of his actions. His chief indignation is, that others draw their breath independent of his frown or smile, and were his power unbridled and without limit, there would be no halt in the march of his minions, until all men were reduced to the necessity of hanging their lives on his licentious will. And this is the man who occupies the Chamber in our old homestead, once occupied by the great and illustrious men whose names we have mentioned.

We will go to the Legislative apartment, and there we shall find the change almost as great as in the Executive. The negroes Harris and Sykes have taken the places once occupied by the patriots and statesmen, Badger and Shepard, and the changes throughout this apartment in four instances out of five are equally as great, equally as outrageous as the two we have just mentioned. When we visit the Judicial apartment we behold a scene that saddens the heart of every friend of justice and good government. Ignorance corruption and depravity have usurped the places of learning, integrity and purity. Tourgee, Jones, Watts and Pool have brought into contempt an office, the duties and responsibilities of which were heretofore so honorably discharged by Osborne, Heath, Gilliam and Warren. The Judiciary, to which we have heretofore looked as the bulwark of freedom, is now to be recognized only as an instrument of oppression and tyranny. We turn from the further consideration of this subject with feelings of loathing and disgust. But the half has not yet been told. These vile usurpers have, with a sacrilegious hand, removed the household gods from the old homestead and set up others in their places. Where now is the Goddess of Liberty, every glance of whose eye once cast a track of light where it fell, and made all things smile around? Alas! she is no longer the presiding genius of this grand old homestead. Where is the Genius of Eloquence, who once stood by the side of the last Goddess of Liberty, holding in her right hand a thunderbolt which had the power of melting, piercing or breaking everything that stood in its way? Where is the Genius of Plenty, who once stood at the portals of the old mansion, holding in her hand a huge horn out of which she poured whole autumns of the richest fruits? Where now is the Genius of Commerce with her rostral crown on her head and eagle eye fixed steadily upon the compass? Alas! Alas!! these have all been removed and others set up in their stead.

In the place of Liberty we see Tyranny enthroned, grasping in her hand an iron sceptre. Behind her stands Barbarism with the garb and complexion of an Ethiopian. On one side stands Ignorance with a turban on her head, and, on the other, Persecution holding up a flag, dripping with the blood of her victims. Around these stand Oppression, Poverty, Torture and a dreadful train of appearances that make us shudder to behold them. And these are gods set up by the new tenants of our dear old homestead. North Carolinians, we are not home yet, but we are on our way there. Horatio Seymour is the chosen one to lead us in our pilgrimage homeward, and the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic party will be as a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night to guide the Anglo Saxon hosts back to the home of other years. Then and not until then may Judge Reade in truth exclaim "at home again."

CIVIS.

BEAUFORT.—At the recent Democratic meeting in the County of Beaufort, the following resolution, among others, was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the scheme of "reconstruction" known as the "Congressional plan" is, in all its essential features, in plain violation of the Constitution of the United States, and has been forced upon the Southern people by fraud and the bayonet; That it has already produced a social chaos, general poverty, and that prevalence of crime which impunity to the criminal always begets; That it is both our right and duty to make known to our fellow citizens of the United States the disastrous consequences which have followed, and must continue, unless the governments thus established are permanently removed; That intelligence and morality in the voter is just as necessary in the South as in the North, and cannot be dispensed with, if republican government is to be preserved; That the relations between the white people and the colored people ought to be kindly and respectful, and we express the opinion that if the Southern States are restored under the guarantees of the Constitution of the United States, a qualified suffrage will be voluntarily conferred upon the colored people.

STATE NEWS.

It is rumored in Wilmington that a battery of artillery, now stationed at Columbia, is to be sent to the former city.

The Philomatheslan Society of Wake Forrest College have expunged, from their list of honorary members the name of the man "who writ himself Governor."

The Local of the Wilmington Star, in one of his letters from Raleigh, during the late great Convention, says that while the delegation was at Gaston, one of the colored delegates distinguished himself in a speech, in the course of which he stated that "Holden having heard of the anticipated arrival of a large number of colored delegates, had packed off to the Springs for his health, and that at last accounts scalawags and carpet-baggers were scarce articles in Raleigh!" An inquiry at Franklinton, where another large crowd met the delegation, made known the fact that only one scalawag was to be found in the village, and that was Greasy Sam (Judge) Watts, who had moved there two days previous! This called for three cheers for Franklinton, which were given with a hearty good will.

All of our brethren of the quill, who were present at the late Convention, speak in the most glowing terms of the great celebration, and are especially eulogistic of the effective and telling speech of Mr. Duffy, formerly of Wisconsin. The Wilmington Journal suggests to the State Executive Committee to procure, if possible, the services of this eloquent gentleman to canvass the State. His speeches must have a wholesome effect, wherever heard.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON.—The Petersburg Index very fitly says:

"The distinction which Judge Pearson draws between the unconstitutional and extra constitutional action of Congress is one of those fine spun distinctions without a difference, with which legal gentlemen may amuse themselves, but the people of the United States will never permit any party to subvert the entire modus operandi of our institutions and extinguish the very spirit of the National life, upon the flimsy pretence of a difference between unconstitutional and extra constitutional proceedings on the part of their servants."

FARMERS' MEETING IN HARNETT.

At a meeting of a portion of the farmers of Harnett County, at the Court House, in Lillington, on Saturday evening, Aug. 8th, 1868, for the purpose of appreciating the invitation of the farmers of Warren County to unite with them in general organization,

The meeting was organized by calling Col. A. S. McNeill to the Chair, and B. F. Shaw, as Secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained by the Chairman.

On motion of Jas. P. Hodges, Esq., the following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, That the Farmers of Harnett County duly appreciate the invitation of the farmers of Warren County, to unite with them and others of like sentiment in appointing delegates to a general meeting of farmers of the State to "consider the subject of immigration and to organize a Society if deemed proper;" and that the chairman of this meeting appoint three delegates from each district in the county to represent the same in the proposed general meeting of the farmers of the State.

The Chairman appointed the following delegates: Johnson's District, Alexander Murchison, Duncan Morrison, K. P. Harman; Barbecue District, Dr. Jno. McCormick, Jno. Harrington and H. D. McCormick; Upper Little River, John W. McKay, Maj. Cameron and J. A. McDougald; Stewart's Creek District, Wm. B. McKay, Caleb Parker, Jr. and S. H. Canaday; Owensboro District, H. A. Barnes, Aaron Parker, F. Smith; Grove District, Neill S. Stewart, Eldridge Stewart, Jno. C. Sorrell; Neill's Creek District, C. S. Barbee, Willis Johnson and Wm. Parson; Hector's Creek, C. H. Coffield, M. Thieder and Rand H. Smith; Buckhorn District, G. W. Pegram, J. G. Brown and M. V. Prince.

On motion of S. H. Canaday, Esq., the proceedings were ordered to be published in the daily Sentinel at Raleigh.

On motion of J. R. Grady, Esq., the officers of this meeting were included in the list of delegates; when, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

THOMASVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Fall Session of this Institution is opening with better prospects than ever before, and the school is constantly extending its popularity and usefulness. This institution, with its large Board of Trustees and experienced Faculty, is permanently established and is intended to meet the demands of this part of the State, so painfully felt since the loss of Greensboro Female College.

The President, Rev. D. R. Bruton, is arranging for an enlargement of the buildings, for procuring philosophical, chemical and astronomical apparatus, and for raising funds, by donation, for the education of poor and indigent young ladies. He has no doubt of final success in this praiseworthy and risking, which is soon to thrill the hearts of hundreds of deserving young ladies who are struggling with much heroic determination to elevate themselves in the sphere of usefulness, and will, also, be of incalculable benefit to the whole State. We trust this worthy effort on the part of President Bruton will meet with that success it so richly deserves.

Of the President we deem it unnecessary to speak. Few men of his years have ever acquired the enviable reputation he now enjoys. As a teacher, he has been unusually successful, and he has won the confidence and esteem of all who have met him, either in his pastoral relations or in the social intercourse of every day life. We commend the Rev. D. R. Bruton and his cheap and flourishing College, to a generous and appreciative public.—Greensboro' Times and Patriot.

IMMENSE SEYMOUR AND BLAIR GATHERING AT CHICAGO.—On last Thursday an immense Democratic ratification meeting was held at Chicago. The crowd was estimated at sixty thousand and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Among the mottoes on the transparencies were the following: "Peace and Harmony;" "One Currency for All;" "Tax the Bondholders;" "When is the War to End?" "No Negro Suffrage."

Upon one of these appeared, in quotation marks, the hypocritical Radical catch phrase: "Let us have peace," illustrated by a representation of the true condition of affairs in the South, a Southern white man driven from the ballot box by a negro in uniform, with a bayonet pointed at his breast; and still further portrayed by a call for a large army to be sent to the South.

Experience has demonstrated that mixed races in the Fire Department was a mistake. Negroes have been discharged and white men re-employed. FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19, P. M.

The Chairman of the Committee of five, appointed by the recent Mississippi (Constitutional) Convention, writes that there is evident intention on the part of the Democrats of the excluded States to vote at the coming Presidential election. If the least encouragement is given by Johnson, they will undoubtedly vote. The Chairman adds fear of the bill passed by Congress is not sufficiently explicit in all respects. He concludes: "Mississippi Republicans are anxiously expecting the September session. Their very existence, as a party and as individuals, depends upon Congressional measures of relief."

Butler directs his Attorneys to apply to Evarts to assist in Butler's defence in Baltimore, under a law passed during the war, requiring the Attorney General to defend officers or ex-officers against whom suits may be brought by civilians for arrest, imprisonment, &c.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

LOSSES PAID IN THIRTY DAYS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 30, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and prospective dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$23.49	$37 00	45	$63.68	$79.58
30	25.90	43 10	50	74.57	104 27

40	43.07	67 44	60	163 21	201 07

EXAMPLE.—A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays 43.10 per annum on the 10 payment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215.50, his policy will be good for $1,215.50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

57,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, etc., may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividend to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to the Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, and as he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur under or in consequence of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution; and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the ——Club of —— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism everywhere, by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt, may be altered, amended or changed at any regular meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board) when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club, and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must appear on the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
